

Coconino County Sheriff's Office

Community Property I.D. Program

The Coconino County Sheriff's Office along with the C.E.R.T. Team would like to assist in providing you, the homeowner, the opportunity to video record your personal items. This will assist you in case of theft, loss, or other circumstance the homeowner is required to provide an inventory and serial numbers for reporting a theft, damage or loss.

We are proud to assist the community in sending authorized trained volunteers to video record your personal items, which include serial numbers and other pertinent information which is valuable in getting your property returned, convicting the suspect, and helping your claim with your insurance company. The Sheriff's Office is providing the video camera and the training to assist the community in Burglary Prevention.

Upon your written permission the volunteer will, by appointment, come to your home and video record all items that you would like to have documented. The recorded information will be turned over to you for your records. It will be up to you to maintain your information in a safe place, and you can take it with you if an emergency situation should arise and deem it necessary to evacuate your home.
